

Hyderabad

Sood's volunteer programme

Sonu Sood on Thursday launched his new initiative, COVREG, which aims to create the world's biggest volunteer programme for Covid vaccination registration in Rural India. Once the volunteers register for the initiative, they will be provided with an app to help with Covid vaccine registrations for approximately 95 crore Indian rural population, comprising over 65 per cent of the total population.
